Series 3000: Operations, Finance, and Property

3100 General Operations

3117 Intellectual Property

The District's intellectual property includes written or artistic works, logos, marks, instructional materials, textbooks, curriculum, software, inventions, procedures, ideas, innovations, systems, and programs, or derivatives of the foregoing, regardless of publication or registration.

Other than District personnel acting in the course of performing a duty for the District, no person may use the District's intellectual property without the prior written permission of the Superintendent or designee or Board approval.

Any work product or derivative work product created or developed by personnel related to District duties or during work hours is a work made for hire and is the District's exclusive property.
